66 YEARS OF EDUCATION

Beirut Arab University - BAU - is a private Lebanese institution for higher education committed, since its foundation in 1960, to promote quality education. BAU has a relatively long history and extensive presence in the Middle East. The university offers undergraduate and graduate programs across a broad range of fields. It encompasses a rich and rewarding educational environment to around 8,000 undergraduate students and 1,500 graduate students from Lebanon and abroad. BAU has graduated over 120,000 alumni who hold excellent positions locally and internationally. Beirut Arab University regularly develops and enhances itself to meet international standards. Moreover, BAU endeavors to implement new programs in areas that align with emerging social needs and the global evolvement in education and research. Through teaching and learning, sports, cultured diversity, community work and scientific outreach. BAU will continue to offer a wide range of opportunities for both education and excellence.

The Lebanese Ministry of Education and Higher Education MEHE recognizes all the degrees awarded by BAU: BA, BS, BBA (License), BA or BS (License d'Enseignement), Diploma, MA, MS, MBA (Diplômes d'Etudes Supérieures), and PhD Doctorat.
