

FACTS AND FIGURES

47 Undergraduate Programs
95 Postgraduate Programs
111,000 Graduates until 2017
8,400 Undergraduate Students
1200 Postgraduate Students
1550 Non-Lebanese Students
1896 Continuing Education Students
126,000 Books

BAU has been developing and prospering since its establishment fifty seven years ago and has grown to encompass four campuses, ten Faculties, Forty seven Programs of Undergraduate Study and ninety five graduate study specialties. By the end of the academic year 2016-2017, BAU's alumni reached 111000, the undergraduate students were around 8,400, the graduate students around 1,200 and the resident and post-graduate internship medical students around 271. In addition to Lebanese students, about 1,550 non Lebanese students join BAU every year, and the dorms in Debbieh campus accommodate around 302 students annually. To provide all the required services and facilities, BAU has 248 Faculty members, 608 staff members, 22 students' athletic teams, artistic clubs, social club: 13 and 8 libraries which contains Books: 126,000, Thesis and Dissertations: 8,000, Multimedia: 1,600, Journals, Maps, Manuscripts and rare books, E-books: 150,000, Databases: 50