

Profile / CV

Lukas Andreas Scherer

Prof. Dr. oec. HSG

Managing director of the Institute for Quality Management and Business Administration (IQB) at the FHS University of Applied Sciences St.Gallen, Switzerland (FHS).

Experience:

- Managing director of the Institute for Quality Management and Business Administration (IQB) at the FHS University of Applied Sciences St.Gallen, Switzerland (FHS).The IQB is an institute focusing on the provision, analysis, documentation, implementation and sustainable improvement of central processes for companies and public institutions by applying expert knowledge of the particular line of business and system-independent quality. Besides consulting, the Institute and its business partners carry out research projects set up by the Swiss Commission for Technology and Innovation.
- Director of studies EMBA
- Rector/ dean and director of studies at the „AKAD Hochschule für Berufstätige und der Privaten Hochschule Wirtschaft“ – part of the „Berner Fachhochschule, Bern, Zürich, St. Gallen“
- Corporate consultant at OBT Treuhand AG, St. Gallen
- Dissertation at the University of St.Gallen, Switzerland with the topic „cooperative further education for executives in small and medium-sized enterprises “
- Corporate consultant in the following areas:
 - Strategy Management, Corporate Governance
 - Organizational Change and Human Resources Management
 - M&A
 - Quality Management
 - Total Quality Management in commercial and industrial companies and Non-Profit-Organisations
- Well-trained assessor-aspirant for E.F.Q.M./SAQ-Systems
- Independant auditor of the Swiss Association for quality-/management-systems, Zollikofen
- University lecturer for several economic topics