

FACTS & FIGURES

BAU has been developing and prospering since its establishment fifty five years ago and has grown to encompass four campuses, ten Faculties, thirty seven Programs of Undergraduate Study and one hundred thirty one graduate study specialties. By the end of the academic year 2013-2014, BAU's alumni reached 104,669, the undergraduate students were around 9,037, the graduate students around 1,300 and the resident and post-graduate internship medical students around 270. In addition to Lebanese students, about 3,500 non Lebanese students join BAU every year, and the dorms in Debbieh campus accommodate around 172 students annually. To provide all the required services and facilities, BAU has 833 Faculty members, 597 staff members, 14 students' athletic teams and 8 libraries which contains 144,708 books and 785 periodicals.