Faculty of Human Sciences

Dean's Message \

The Faculty of Human Sciences, previously the Faculty of Arts, is the earliest founded Faculty at BAU located on Beirut Campus, and it is a cornerstone of the University. The Faculty consists of a number of departments representing various disciplines of the humanities ranging from social sciences to three major languages. This academic structure of the Faculty is a clear manifestation of its importance and its substantial contribution to the education in Lebanon.

In the light of the rapid changes and progress in the fields of technology and knowledge, the Faculty of Human Sciences has adopted a philosophy of growth and sustainable development by applying new methods in teaching and learning, producing graduates worthy of the reputation of BAU, and being capable of satisfying the needs of the job-market. To further enhance our cutting edge, the Faculty has taken its first steps towards the international academic accreditation, with the accreditation of the Psychology Program by AHPGS (The Accreditation Agency in Health & Social Sciences) in 2017.

Academic Policy \ Supporting Your Steps

Faculty Guide
Academic Policy
page. 10

The Academic Policy helps students understand their rights and responsibilities and successfully complete all required academic tasks.

Academic Advising

Academic Advising is a shared responsibility; it entails a dynamic relationship between the advisor and the student. The advisors are committed to help students make a successful transition to the university and develop an appropriate academic plan. Advising is available to all students before the registration process to assist them in choosing a major, selecting courses, and completing all graduation requirements.

Code of Ethics

The Code of Ethics is designed to establish an environment of honor and trust within the University. BAU's Code of Ethics aims at promoting the growth of ethically responsible students through adherence to the highest standards of academic integrity, ethics, and morals.

Learning Facilities \ Inspiring Your Learning

Faculty Guide
Learning Facilities
page. 11

The Faculty enjoys a number of academic facilities that are open to students:
